

COUNTRY PIECEMAKERS
MINUTES FOR JUNE 9, 2018

The meeting was called to order by Dorothy Holland at 9:30 a.m. Dorothy also led us in a devotion. There were 19 members present and 2 visitors (Marie DeLotto-a former member). Dorothy commented on the field trip A Thread Runs Through It in Rustburg last month.

- The minutes and treasurer's reports from May meeting were approved.
- Sara reported that we have 44 members and Jane Phillips will be taking over the membership responsibilities. Dorothy thanked Sara for her hard work. Boni Simmons will now be in charge of election in November and voting in December. Dorothy asked if anyone would be willing to help make notebooks for new members. Sara has materials to put in the notebooks and will turn them over to Jane.
- Hospitality today is Betsy Maier and Jan Hanlon. For July, Jane Elbert and Janet Carson will be in charge of hospitality.
- Merci gave an update on breast cancer and distributed cancer materials, etc. She thanked members for the blocks of basket of hope and she showed us a quilt that she has made to recognize cancer. Her words are educate, advocate, and eradicate cancer.
- Community Fund Raiser for July. Members are asked to bring store bought patterns that are in good condition to be sold to raise monies for the guild. Cindy is handling this activity. Another fund raiser will be in September with raffle baskets. Lisa is putting together a basket and Colleen is putting together a Christmas basket. If anyone needs a basket, please see Colleen.
- Lisa thanked members for their donations for her upcoming mission trip. She has received 10-15 machines and lots of fabrics from various groups.
- Kay passed around a sheet to sign up for Challenge in 2019 for your choice of month. She also passed around a sheet so that Jane E. would know how many members want to do the July angel project. The cost is $5.50 and the supply list will come out soon.
- In August, Bev will be in charge of the program. Information will be provided later.
- In September, we will work on Veteran Quilts. Joan Scott, a former member, donated backing fabrics.
- BOMs were on the display walls. Next month, the Underground Railroad blocks will be Flying Geese and Birds in the Air. After August, there will be one more block so discussion about going to Rose Patch and/or Millstone to purchase backing fabrics. Kay will send out the directions for the Neighborhood blocks.
- Dorothy asked members to submit names and information regarding contact person for the various organizations in which we contribute items. Please send these to Barbara.
- Colleen collected pillowcases and thanked Barbara for the patriotic ones for this month.

- Colleen collected final payments for retreat. She also showed the lotto block for the retreat and directions will be sent out later. Attendees can make up to 5 sets.
- UFO's today were Barbara, Linda C., and Dorothy.
- Quilts for the library-Merci in June; Cindy in July; and Becky in August.
- There were no nursing home quilts today.
- There were 3 baby quilts for NICU.
- Show and Tell today by Bonnie Stapleton, Lisa Adams, Colleen, and Merci.
- Birthdays today were Jane and Lisa.
- Meeting adjourned to hang quilt in library and set up tables for the program.

Lisa Adams did the program today on the Beachside Bungalow. Thanks Lisa.

Respectfully submitted
